

One Sweet Day

When I look in the mirror, I just want to hide
This shame and remorse so deep inside
Can I trust these feelings? Do I dare have dreams?
Cuz, nothing ever appears as it seems?

Chorus

But one sweet day - I'm gonna learn to trust myself
One sweet day I'm gonna find a way to turn it around
I'm gonna stand my ground
I'm gonna learn to trust myself one sweet day

I'm somebody's daughter but they don't want me.
I'm a disappointment they don't want to see.
But I'm also somebody's mother, I know my kids love me
Cuz I'm told they cry themselves to sleep, over me.

Chorus

But one sweet day - I'm gonna learn to forgive myself
One sweet day I'm gonna find a way to turn it around
I'm gonna stand my ground
I'm gonna learn to trust myself one sweet day

Small town talk means to keep me small
Feel like I'm forgotten, seems like no one cares about me at all
Let them keep their opinions inside their heads
Cuz they don't matter, it's better if I learn to trust myself instead

Chorus

But one sweet day - I'm gonna learn to love myself
One sweet day I'm gonna find a way to turn it around
I'm gonna stand my ground
I'm gonna learn to trust myself one sweet day

Bridge:

Nothing they say is gonna drag me down
Not my parents and not this town
My kids and me are gonna be together again
We're gonna dream our dreams, we're gonna make new friends.

2nd Chorus

On that sweet day I'm going back to them to stay
On that sweet day no matter what it's gonna take
A better life is what we're gonna make
I'm going back to them to stay one sweet day. (x2)
